☐ (b) Who lacks adequate parental care because of the faults or habits of the child's parents, guardian, or custodian;
☒ (c) Whose parents, guardian, or custodian neglects the child or refuses to provide proper or necessary subsistence, education, medical or surgical care, or treatment or other care necessary for the child's health, morals, or well-being;

- ☐ (d) Whose parents, guardian, or custodian neglects the child or refuses to provide the special care made necessary by the child's mental condition;

☐ An abused child as defined in ORC §2151.031, that is:

☒ A dependent child as defined in ORC §2151.04, that is:

- ☐ (a) Who is homeless or destitute or without adequate parental care, through no fault of the child's parents, guardian, or custodian;
- ☐ (b) Who lacks adequate parental care by reason of the mental or physical condition of the child's parents, guardian, or custodian;
- ☒ (c) Whose condition or environment is such as to warrant the state, in the interests of the child, in assuming his guardianship;
- ☐ (d) To whom both of the following apply:

(1) He is residing in a household in which a parent, guardian, custodian, or other member of the household committed an act that was the basis for an adjudication that a sibling of the child or any other child who resides in the household is an abused neglected or dependent child.

(2) Because of the circumstances surrounding the abuse or neglect or dependency of the sibling or other child and the other conditions in the household of the child, the child is in danger of being abused or neglected by that parents, guardian, custodian, or member of the household.

The Facts are as follows:

Pickaway County Job and Family Services has had Agency involvement with Legal Custodian since February of 2025. During agency involvement services and aid were provided to the family, including the use of respite care, after the Agency had been contacted due to Legal Custodian struggling to manage the Minor Child's behavioral issues and lack of sleep. On May 29, 2025, the minor child was found walking on Main Street in Ashville with a t-shirt, no shoes, and underwear walking in the rain. The minor child informed the caseworker that he was going to a friend's house because he felt unwelcome at home and had been instructed to leave. The minor child also said he was locked out of the house. Agency Case worker had spoken to the Legal Custodian who has expressed that she was having hard time handling the minor child due to his behavior. Legal Custodian cited that the medicine the minor child was on was not working, however, legal custodian did not have a filled prescription for the minor child. This is the second occurrence of the Legal Custodian not having a filled prescription for the minor child. This same thing happened when the 30 day agreement for respite care occurred. Agency also has concerns for another child in the Legal Custodian's home, as well as the fact that the family is living in a two bedroom apartment, that is in the Legal Custodian mother's name. There is concern that the living arrangement may violate terms of a HUD agreement, but that the legal custodian has not been evicted due to the children residing in the home.

WHEREFORE, Complainant prays this Court find the child a neglected, and/or dependent as alleged, make a disposition of temporary custody to PCJGS, and make any other orders the Court deems necessary pursuant to R.C. § 2151.353.
